We Dedicate

THIS book is dedicated to one whose fine work and diligent service entitle him to a great deal more recognition than we shall ever be able to give him in such a book as the Manhigan.

As our permanent financial advisor, Mr. Sherman has been instrumental in the publication of this book for many years. As head of the popular and important commercial department, he is constantly striving to improve the course and raise its standards.

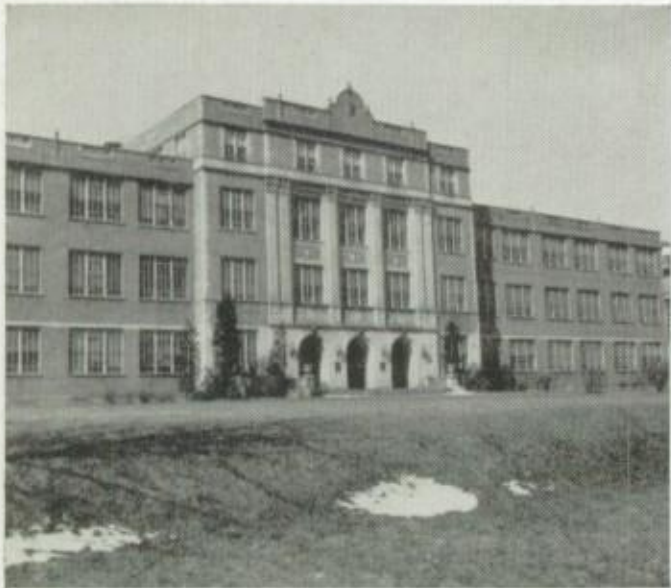

But chiefly because of his genuine interest in students and their welfare, we dedicate to Mr. George Sherman the 1941 MANHIGAN.

We of Mansfield Senior High School are very fortunate in that we have a fine building in which to work. Our school is comparatively new. It contains excellent facilities for class work. Its shops are well-equipped and manned with a well-trained staff. This is also true of the home economics department. We have the opportunity to live under a democratic government. All of these are priceless privileges; we should and do appreciate them.

W. L. MILLER

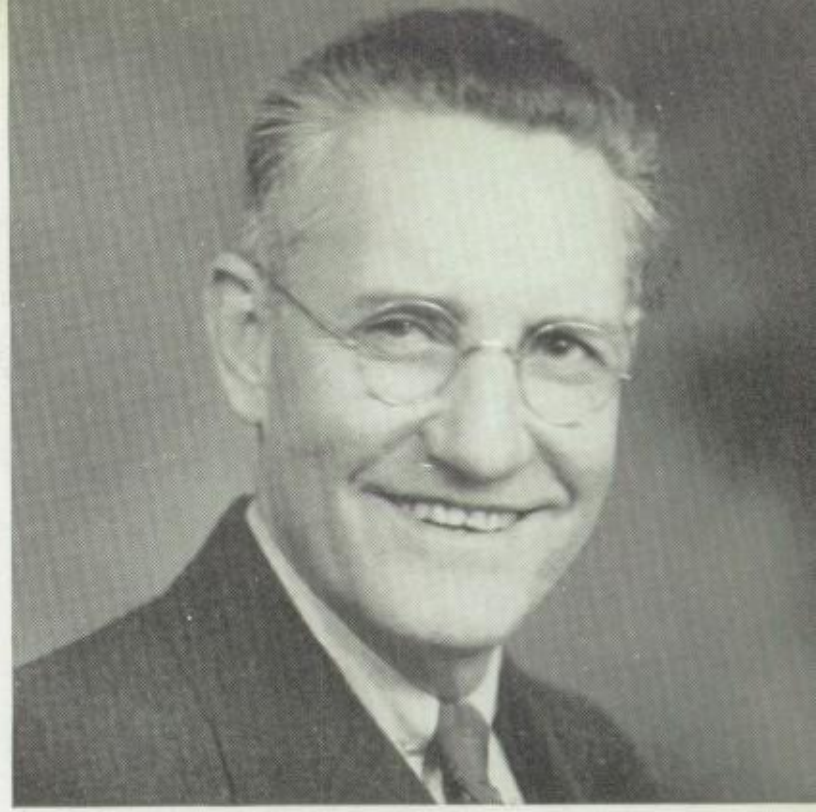

As a monument to the administration of Mr. Miller as Superintendent of Schools, stand the two new Junior High Schools. We too, at Senior High School, are appreciative of his efforts to give us the best possible education. It is whispered that Mr. Miller is an ardent and patient fisherman.

Personnel

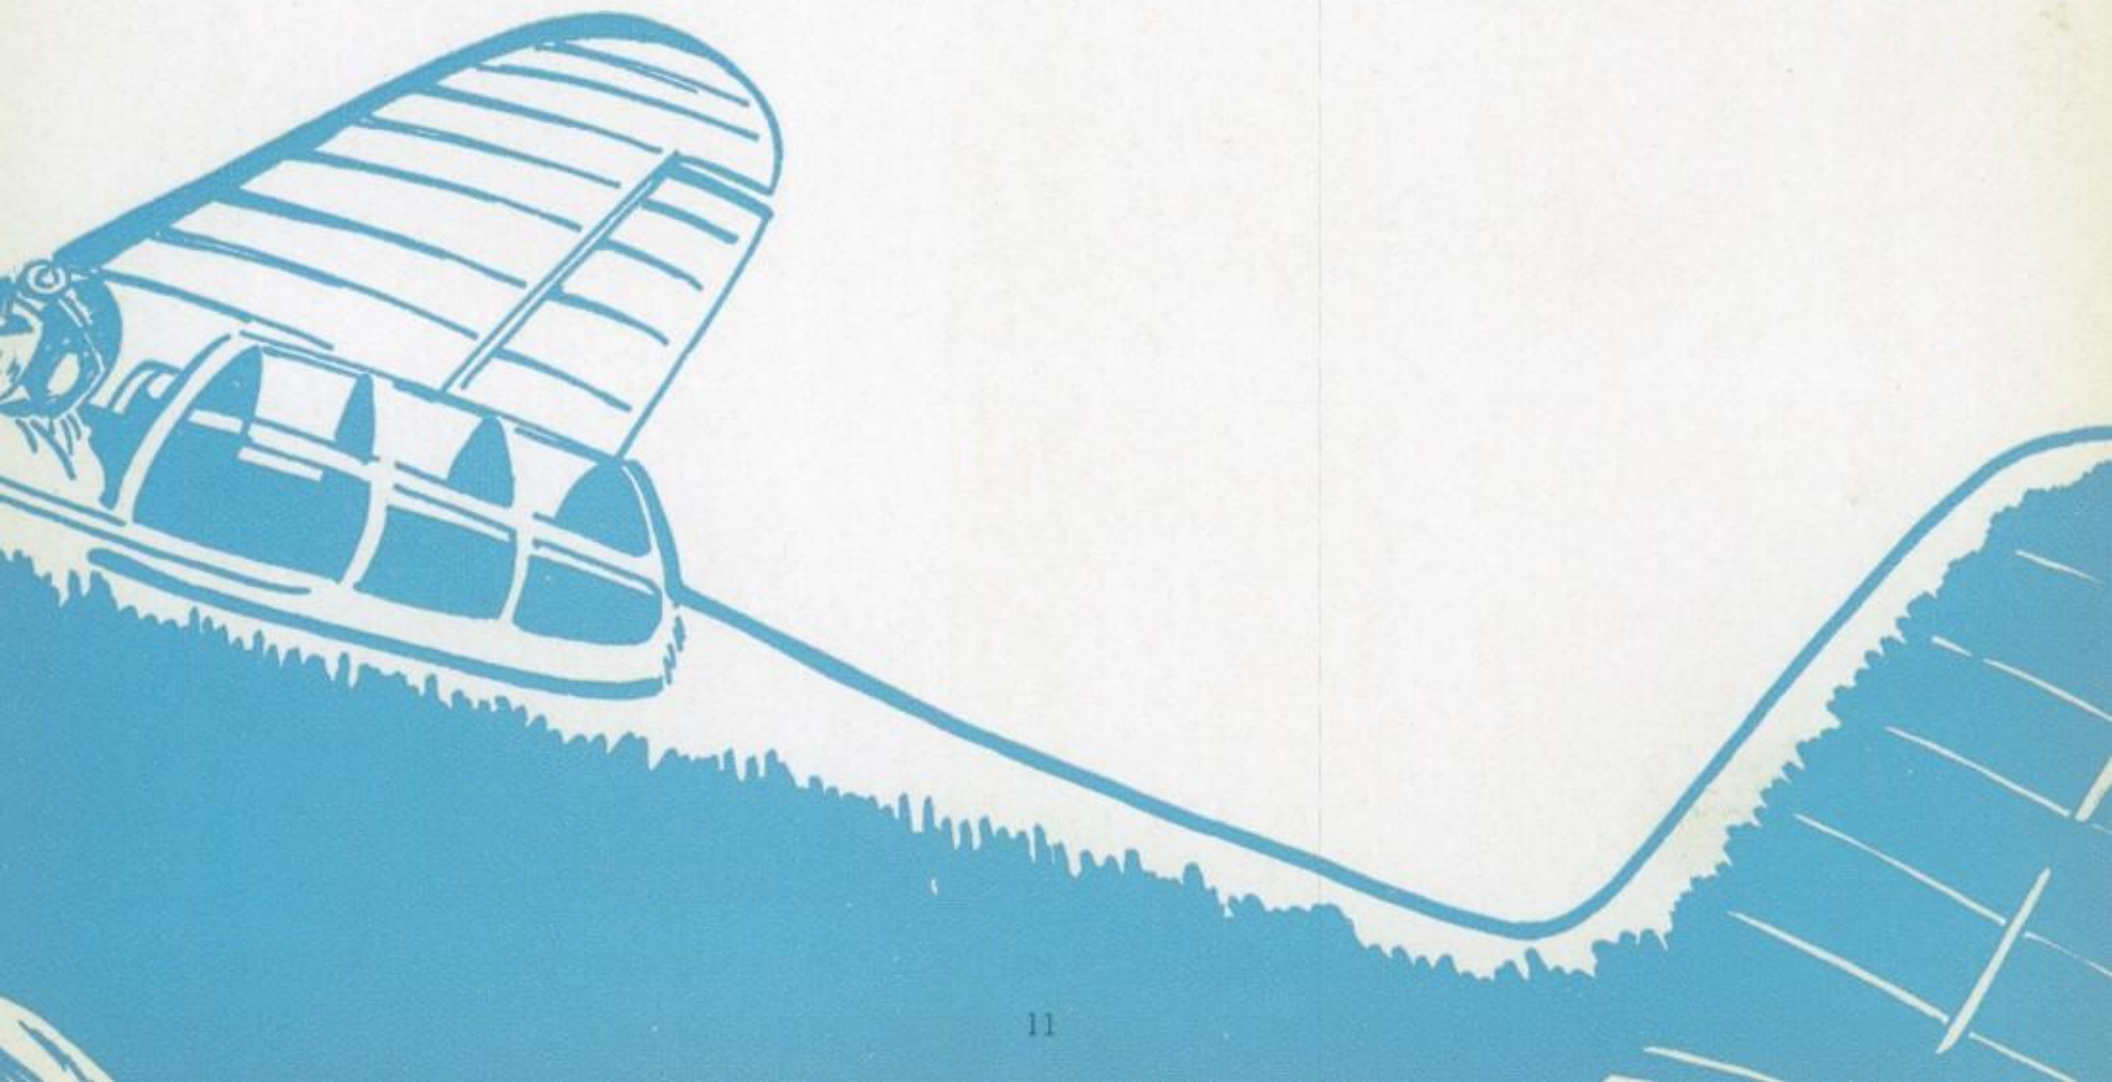

JESSE BEER

Mr. Beer is very popular with everyone whom he contacts. He bears no resemblance to the so-called typical school principal who's grouchy and unpleasant in every way. On the contrary, Mr. Beer is always cheerful and has a good word for everyone.

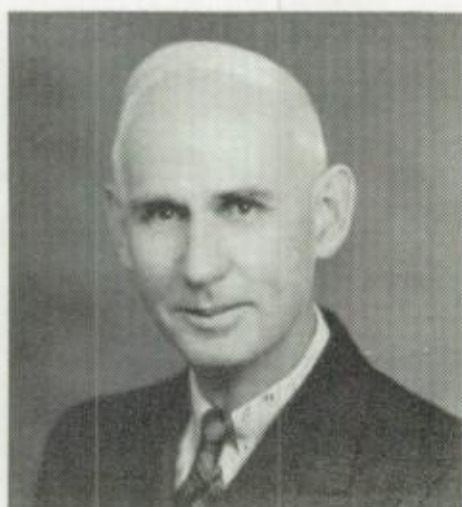

H. D. BISHOP

Counselor, friend, and executive, Mr. Bishop, our assistant principal, can be found nearly anytime during the day in the main office or in his adjoining office. He gives us pass slips, signs excuses, and has much to do with the successful operation of the school.

Organizations

Organizations

Perhaps the greatest privilege an American has is that of doing only those things which give him the most pleasure, with due regard for the rights of other people; perhaps there is no better illustration of this fact than is to be found in one phase of our own school life. There are approximately twenty organizations in M. H. S. from which a student may choose those which interest him most, and in which he can find the most pleasure as a member.

Organizations are an essential part of any school, for it is there that a student first puts into practice what he has learned in the classroom. In addition, he learns some things that cannot be taught in a class. We feel, therefore, that every student should make himself a part of as many extra-curricular activities as his class schedule will permit.

M. H. S. is outstanding for its many fine organizations. It is you, the students, who have made it so, and it is you who deserve the credit.

S. S. S. Club

The Social Science Service Club, which has been advised by Mr. V. D. Coe ever since its beginning, is one of the best organizations of the school.

Every year the club has charge of the Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets given to needy families of the town. Miss Ruth Dunham has charge of the collection and distribution of these baskets at Christmas. There are enough baskets to care for from forty to fifty families every year.

In this club the "freshies" get to know each other better. The meetings, which are held on Monday night at 7:30, on the second floor of the Y. W. C. A., are conducted in much the same manner as those of the Jr. Sr. club. They have been presided over for the past year by Evelyn Art, Pres., Ruth Ellen Hurst, V. Pres., Naomi Myers, Secretary, and Jane Mercer, Treasurer. Miss Catherine Culp is the advisor.

For the past year these girls served as cabinet members: Marjorie Hale, Pres.; Marian Lutz, V. Pres.; Jean Kelly, Secretary; and Margaret Gage, Treasurer.

Miss Norma Sheer has served as advisor for the past year.

Bishop, strives, as do the other Hi-Y's, to "create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." The administration, in order of rank, consists of Bob Saltzgaber, Charles Sweet, Richard Theaker, and John White.

This club is made up of the students who have dramatic talents and interests. The club usually puts on one or more plays during the year. This year, however, the members did not put on a full-length play; instead, they have been working on one-act plays. Prospective members try out before the advisor, Mr. E. L. S. R. C.

This year the Student Representative Council, better known as the S. R. C., adopted a new method of choosing members. According to recommendations of the evaluators, students are now elected from each home room. This system makes it possible for the pupils to hear reports on the actions of the council. The present set-up has organized a new study hall system and taken charge of detention hall.

S. O. P. C.

This is the second year for this Society of Prospective Collegians, which was organized to help seniors plan their college careers intelligently. Each year representatives from various types of colleges and universities are brought to speak to the members of the club. There are only two officers, secretary and treasurer. Gretchen Edwards served as treasurer the entire year; Joan Watson as secretary the first semester, and Betsy Cave the second. Miss Emma G. Waring is the founder and advisor of the club.

The purpose is to make a study of national and international occurrences in order that our own present day problems may be better understood. The Hyphonerian

If a Greek were to hear the word "Hyphonerian," he would think — "the voice of the school;" if a pupil of M. H. S. hears it, he thinks of our school paper.

Every two weeks we students take it for granted that the Hypho will come out, but the editors are never sure that the deadline will be met. This paper is the work of the students; Miss Patterson, the Editorial Advisor, and Mr. Ketner, the Business Advisor, very wisely allow the staff to solve its own problems.

Manhigan

Every year, with much hard work and more luck, the MANHIGAN staff manages to publish the yearbook. The purpose of the annual is to record the school year in black and white. We hope that many years from now those who are now students and who will be businessmen and housewives will be reminded of the school year '40 - '41 at M. H. S. If this is true, we, the editors, feel that all of our efforts have been worth while — even the time spent during spring vacation.

Band

Our band has just passed through an eventful year. After much effort, it succeeded in raising enough money to buy new uniforms. These were displayed to the public, and the bright red and blue colors were voted very effective. The band deserves much credit for its perseverance in earning the necessary money for this project.

The classes in this section have reached the midpoint in their high school careers. They have passed the bottom rung on the ladder, but they must still look up to the seniors. This year the 11A's set a precedent when they presented a junior play; it now remains to be seen if succeeding classes will follow their example. We hope that this class, when they are seniors, will live up to the example of other "dignified" graduating classes.

Our Wings

When we use the above title for this section of the MANHIGAN, we do not mean to imply that all seniors are angels, nor do we mean it sarcastically. This annual perhaps will mean the most to the seniors, who will keep it as a record of the last year of high school and for many, the last year of any formal schooling. We hope that it will serve this purpose and that it will always bring happy memories to them.

January Class Officers

JOSEPH KIEFER

By the time this annual has come out we have all had a chance to see the large gap which Joe left at M. H. S. when he was graduated. But members of his class did not need to lose him in order to properly appreciate his efforts as class president. The fact that his class was small did not make Joe's duties lighter nor did it make him work any less.

BETTY KIMES

"Take a letter Miss Smith"—In this class, however, it was Miss Kimes. Many are the letters, minutes, and records that Betty has kept, and many are the hours that she has spent helping her class towards graduation. She never let her duties get her down, but even in the last bustling weeks had a cheery smile for everyone.

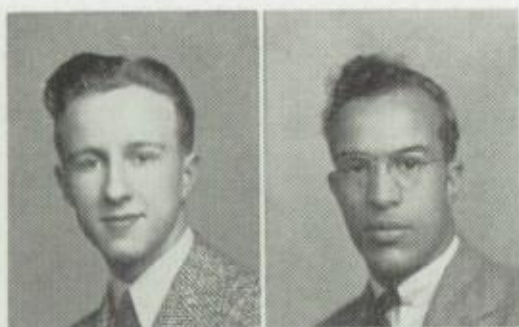

GEORGE MURRAY

George, better known as Junior, Murray spent much time and several brain cells in his office as Class vice-president. But this student's activities did not stop with this responsibility; his splendid performance on the football field spoke well for his athletic ability.

MARJORIE WOODARD

That tall, blonde girl whom you saw roaming the halls during the first half of this school year with a receipt book in her hand and a gleam in her eye was none other than Marjorie Woodard, the treasurer of the January graduating class. We should like to know if Marjorie's financial books were as artistic as her drawings.

The Seniors

RICHARD BOYD ANDERSON: "Andy" is never dignified, but he is unobtrusive in his rowdiness.
Track 2; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

Football 3; Track 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, Treas. 4; "M" Association 2, 3, 4.

PAUL MOZART AUXTER: When Paul entered M. H. S. he was a terrible flirt. As a senior, of course, he has outgrown that.

RUTH EVELYN BATES: Where Ruthie is, there is always fun.

WILLIAM ROBERT BLACK: Is one of the few seniors who went out for Track, and won his recognition.
Cross Country 2, 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

CHARLES ROBERT BONAR: Is actually so quiet and calm that it is hard to say much about him—but we will say he is a real fellow and a good sport.
Track 4.

MARY WILMA BURKHOLDER: The little girl with the big laugh always adds fun to the crowd she attracts.
Class Play 4; Pep Club 3, 4.

JOAN MARGERY DEAN: Without seeming to study a great deal, Joan has managed to attain an enviable standing in scholarship.

Blue Tri 2, 3, 4; G. A. A. 3, 4; French Club 4; Red Masque 4; S. O. P. C. 4; Band 2, 3, 4; Crescendo Club 2, 3, 4.

Football 2, 3, 4; "M" Association 2, 3, 4.

KATHRYN EILEEN KNAGGS: If Kathryn skates through life as smoothly as she does at the rink, she is sure to be a success.

GRETCHEN JANE LANE: She certainly will make a splendid secretary.
Blue Tri 3, 4; Photo Club 3, 4; Drum Majorette Corps 3.

WINIFRED ANITA LEE: Hats off to a swell G. A. A. treasurer and Hypo reporter! Winifred has made a name for herself out here.

LOUISE PEGGY LONG: She takes her duties lightly but always comes through smiling.

JOAN MARQUIS: Very pleasing personality and lots of fun.

Red Cross Council 3, 4.

WILLIAM DONALD MITCHELL: To start a conversation, just ask Bill about his car—or any other car.

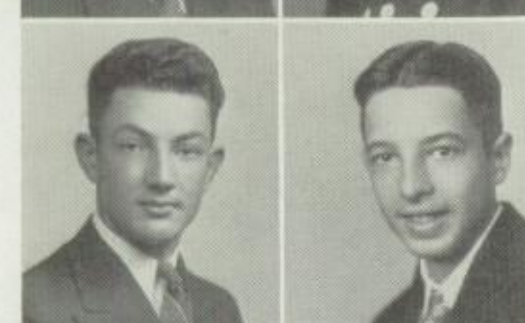

GEORGE JUNIOR MURRAY: This student seems to have succeeded in everything he has tried to do.

RICHARD EDWIN PAYNE: Quiet, but not so studious. What does Dick do after school? Shh! It's Dick's own secret.
Wrestling 4; Class Play 4; Stamp Club 4.

JOSEPH ANTON REIF: Threw his offerings into our kettle and walks out a full fledged "dignified" senior. For a new-comer, he has really gone places.

CHARLES THEODORE REYNOLDS: Is the little boy with the changeable personality. He enjoys a good time, but then again, he can be the perfect good little boy.

MARJORIE ELAINE RITCHIE: If you see a swish of dark brown hair—look twice and you'll see little "Margie" there.
G. A. A. 2; Blue Tri 2, 3; S. R. C. 2, 3, 4.

PEARL RUBE: She is a fine actress and a fine student. What is unusual about her? Why, she is liked by the teachers as well as by the students.

June Class Officers

RICHARD BURKHOLDER

The job of being president of a graduating class is no cinch; as Dick has learned, no doubt. At any rate he has had a good chance to in the two years that he piloted the June 1941 class. But "Burky" did not let the heavy duties of this responsibility keep him from other endeavors. He also devoted much of his time and energy to the Hypho, the S. R. C., and athletics.

DOROTHY BERGMAN

The class secretary is the person everyone goes to when he would like to know what happened at such-and-such a class meeting, when he would like a letter sent in a hurry, or when he would like to find out anything else that no one else in the class can tell him. It's a pretty sure bet, too, that "Dot" was always "ready, willing, and able" to fulfill her duties in this office.

JOSEPH HORVATH

People are apt to say "Oh, he's just vice-president." Joe, however, can tell you that this office is not to be scoffed at. It is a great temptation to say "let the vice-president do it; he has no other duties." One forgets that yesterday, and the day before, and the day before they said the same thing. Joe has never let us down, and we sincerely hope that every class has someone like him.

GENE EMMER

Three-hundred students—three dollars each. Collecting these dues was only one of Gene's jobs as class treasurer in the past year. Another of his "minor worries" was the paying of numerous bills which classes have a way of receiving. If you really believe that these are "minor worries," you might "ask the man who owns one."

WILLIAM CHARLES ABELE: Bill has been a big help to the basketball and track teams. The athletic department will be sorry to lose him.

Athletics

In this, his second year at M. H. S., Coach Paul Snyder has cemented the good will which he earned last year. Here we see him on the athletic field where, oddly enough, he spends a great deal of his time. This year he has coached the swimming team through a successful season and has brought tumbling to the school.

Coach Verne Hoffman, in the two years that he has been a member of our faculty, has made many friends. He receives credit for his work with the basketball team, but we are apt to forget his excellent scouting and backfield coaching for the football team.

No longer can we say that Coach Harry Mehock belongs exclusively to our school; he has devoted much of his time to the coordination of the athletic programs of the grade schools, junior highs, and senior high. This year Mehock has done especially well in stimulating interest in sports in grade schools.

The Tygers had high hopes as they handed their first four opponents outstanding defeats. Surprisingly, we traveled to Sandusky and were overcome by the Blue Streaks 32 to 21. We showed great improvement, however, by keeping the powerful Massillon Bengals from their usual high scoring victories.

After suffering two successive trouncings, we finally ended the season by giving the Shelby Team a surprised defeat of 27 to 0.

Row One—Ed Woodberry, Lester Flegal, Frank Pival, Dick Burkholder, Charles Sweet.

Row Two—Doyle Oberholtzer, Hobart Adams, Bob Yarman, Floyd Sowash, Don Hipp.

George Davis, Al Hager, Nick Komjenovich, Mr. V. H. Oberlander, Joe Collins, Jim Hegarty.

Cross Country

This group of boys has shown great sportsmanship and has achieved numerous honors for our school through their hard work in cross country racing. An outstanding attraction of their schedule this year was the race at Sandusky during the "half" of the football game. We all hope that next year's team will prove as successful as this one has been.

Golf Team

The golf team is composed of boys who have tried out or were chosen by their instructor, Mr. V. H. Oberlander. The team competes with other schools and, while not receiving much publicity, they have done things worthy of it.

Swimming

Although not heard of very much, the swimming Tygers had a very successful season this year. Under the leadership of Coach Paul Snyder, they had one of the best teams in the pool's history.

Row One—The better part of Lynn McCorquodale, Bob Abrams, Joe Wilcox, Lynn Teale.

Row Two—Bob Miller, Norman Wilcox, Jim Hegarty, Joe Collins.

Row Two—Dennis Berry, Dana Cavin, Jim Kennedy, Don Smoke, Fred Morey, Justin Seiler.

Wrestling

F. B. Million, wrestling coach, steered his team through a very successful series of "grunt and groan" bouts this season. Many of our boys received medals and the majority of them participated in all contests. The team has shown great improvement in the past year and interest in the sport has increased with it.

At the moment Ed Arlin seems to be operating on Bill Doolittle.

Champion Soccer Team

The girls' gym program was started with a soccer tournament this year. Teams were organized by the girls themselves and the rosters then handed in to Miss Snider. Twenty-one teams participated in this activity. The victors were a sophomore team called "Our Gang."

Row One—Eudie Smotherman, June Shufflebarger, Lucille Chesroun, Ruth LeMunyon, Mary Margaret Buhr, La Vonna Schaefer.

Row Two—Joan Overmeyer, Marjorie McClure, Doris Scisinger, Shirley Stickler, Lois Wappner, Elsie Roehm, manager.

Champion Volleyball Team

Another successful tournament was held in volleyball. In this series twenty-two teams took part. Again the seniors were forced to bow to underclassmen — juniors to be exact. Their name implies their ferocity: "Tigerettes."

Row One—Roberta O'Harra, manager, Irene Miller, Pat Hieber, Joan Blank, Angeline Kaler, Marge Kurek, Ann Such.

Row Two—Gertrude Torski, Catherine Musille, Helen Koroknay, Mary Gregoria, Doris Radovitch, Viola Musille.

Row One—Marjorie Smotherman, Joan Porter, Marjorie Urich, Marilyn Hannan, Eloise Harbaugh, Wilma Jean Ross, Mary McCartney, Patty Bancroft, Marilou Sowash.

Row Two—Betty Rowe, Ruth Harbaugh, Catherine Lannerd, Ruth Hammer, La Vonne Hunter, Patty Hieber, Helen Webber, Etabel Hunter, Anne Wilson.

Swimming Club

One of the new features of the girl's physical education department is the swimming club. This has a limited enrollment and girls must pass difficult tests in order to be admitted. It has brought interest flowing from all corners. The new routines that are being worked out prove that water and beauty mix quite well.

Girls sports during the past year have increased their scope at a rapid rate so that at the present time over 90% of all girls participate in them. Due to Miss Snider's reorganization new and interesting sports and games have been introduced to our school. One of these is badminton, a game enjoyed by many who seek a more quiet sport.
